July - September 2010 Issue 29

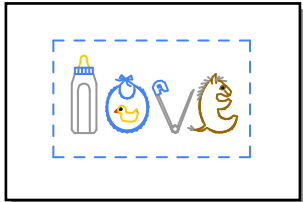

Dear Stitches,

Our South African winter is biting away at my fingers but I'm still stitching away!
The Craftwise festival at Epworth was cancelled due to lack of dealer interest (Craftwise will be trying again in Port Elizabeth in September but I think they will have the same problem there). However, at the last minute I decided to take a stand at the "Your Family Craft Expo" at Emperors Palace in Johannesburg. My sister-in-law came from Durban to help me and we flew up together (an expensive exercise) – driving on the outskirts of Johannesburg for the first time was not quite as hair-raising as I'd expected and we only got lost twice each day for 3 of the 4 days we were there! (When in doubt, go back to the Airport!!) It was fun and we sold a lot of Starter Kits, so hopefully we have a new crop of stitching addicts!

On to the new designs... As my daughter Nicky is expecting her first baby in September, I thought a couple of Baby cards would be fun and as Christmas is also just around the corner, a couple of new designs would be useful too! And, finally, one more off my "request" list... a Spray of Fuchsia to brighten your day! Enjoy!!

Regards from Sue in Cape Town

South African customer please note: Due to the difficulty of running the business on my own, I am discontinuing KITS – however, if you let me know, I will happily add carded threads and a card in the correct colours to your order – these will be additional to the price of the pattern. Also Bookmark packs will no longer be available.

Hello from a very cold Albury,

Don't know if it is colder than last year or if it's just because I am another year older but really feeling it this winter. Think the best thing to do is stay indoors and Stitch!

Hope you all find the latest Designs as exciting as I have - Xmas ones to get a good early start to avoid that terrible rush later on and the lovely new Baby ones (inspired no doubt because Sue is looking forward to another grand-child soon!)

We have been lucky enough to meet two more of our customers during the past quarter - Judy Mudie from Werribee and Doona Young from Tyobb. Really lovely you could call in Judy while visiting your son here in Albury, and thank you Doona for taking time out from your dancing to spend a couple of hours with us. We hope to get to see you both again and of course, any one else that is visiting or passing through Albury you will be most welcome - just give us a call first to make sure we are at home..

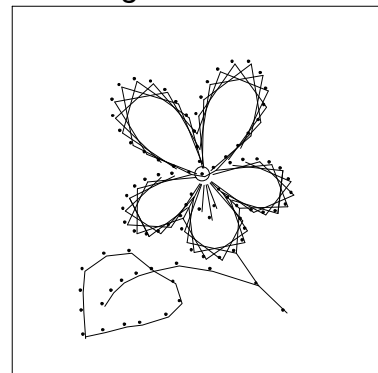

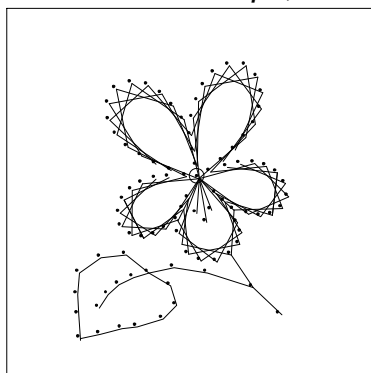

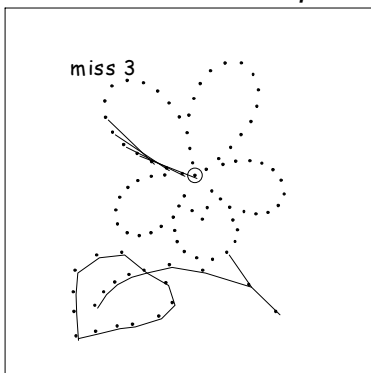

Heard from Carol Henriksen and had a very nice chat on the phone - sorry to hear your hubby has been in hospital Carol and really hope he is much better by now. Anyone else that hasn't been well we hope you will be on the mend soon - only another 6 weeks to Spring!!

Unfortunately the postage costs increased as from 1st July so please any one sending payments with orders please give us a ring first to find out the new tariffs.

Looking forward to hearing from you soon
Keep Well and Happy Stitching

Kind Regards,
Liz & Ned at P n S Australia.
